The Best of Brooklyn Multicultural Neighborhood, Sightseeing, and Food Tasting Tour

This Brooklyn Tour, begins in front of Cornelia Street Cafe (29 Cornelia Street New York, NY 10014)

This four-hour combination bus and walking tour lets you experience the ethnic diversity and fascinating history of this storied borough. Walk, ride, listen and taste your way through the neighborhoods that, together, make up the gem that is Brooklyn. Your knowledgeable and informative native-New Yorker tour guide will take you through Williamsburg and Greenpoint, home to many ethnic groups and a thriving art community where you'll get to sample delectable foods from authentic local ethnic eateries; DUMBO, where you'll sample scrumptious chocolate at the Jacques Torres chocolate factory and visit Brooklyn Bridge Park for an excellent view of Manhattan's famous skyline; and Sunset Park, featuring a plethora of Latin American food establishments, to experience the famous "Cuban" sandwich.

Come hungry this is a tour where you will not just taste but eat foods from several different cultures.(Jewish Knish, Italian samples, then a full lunch at a polish restaurant followed by chocolates, and a Cuban sandwich). We will join the tour in NYC where the guide will take us by bus around the city. If you would like to come with me to the city I am taking the 7:53 train from New haven arriving in NYC Grand Central at 9:43. Then onto a subway train to NY University and the Cornelia Street Café. After the tour you can go to Murray's Cheese shop. The train coming home would be one of the following:4:40 from Grand Central – arrive in New Haven at 6:32.Leave Grand Central at 5:03 arrive in New Haven at 6"45. Leave Grand Central at 5:23 then arrive in New Haven at 7:01. The cost of the round trip ticket to NYC is $29.50 from New Haven.

I can only take 22 people so space is limited and going to the first 22 people. The cost of the trip is $60.00 for AAFCS members and $75.00 for nonmembers. Send a check written out to AAFCS/Ct to Anita Ferron, 109 Benham Hill Road, West Haven, Ct. 06516. Questions or concerns email anita@ferron.com. Yes they do have a vegetarian menu for those who do not eat meat.
