A Note From Our Honorary Starter

Gentlemen:

Welcome one and all to a tradition like no other...The Endicott College Invitational or as noted golf historians refer to as; "The ECI." Once again, it is a time for student-athletes young & old to come together and compete, laugh, donate a few balls, hole several putts & reflect on good times shared while enjoying the precious present.

Have a wonderful week in beautiful Beverly!

All my best,

Steve Nesbitt
Endicott College
Golf Coach 2000-2002
