

Diary entry:

As I prepare to play my one practice round tomorrow morning at Gajda's old stomping grounds of Kernwood CC, I can't help but have flashbacks to the golden days at Endicott when I (and we all) played private courses 4 days a week. Thanks to annoyances like time and $$ I'm lucky if I play 4 times a month but so is life.

I appreciate the opportunity to do a diary and hope the 3-time champ can find that college form for 18 holes on Sunday. Look forward to seeing you all, it's always a great day win, lose or withdraw with all you degenerates. Safe travels monkeys.

BTW, great work getting things organized at TPC!!!
