

I am extremely excited to rejoin the field after a long 6 year hiatus from the prestigious eci tournament. My expectations for myself are pretty clear this year.

- last place finish
- do not leave golf course with any golf balls left in my bag
- do not throw out back on first tee and try to make it through 9 holes before I need to call Tess over for an awkward rub down of icy hot and a re-wrapping of my knees.
- several beers consumed in short period of time
- catching up with all you bastards

Safe travels and see you Saturday!
