

Another year has come and gone. Can't believe that the 10 year anniversary of the ECI is upon us. It seems just like yesterday I was triple bogeying the 16 hole and looking at my first ECI go down the drain. Oh wait I have done that 3 straight years. But a new year and new expectations. This year has been filled with joy and excitement. I have a new job at a great university. It has made me want to go to work every day. Also if you see the talent of female athletes I have here you would want to work here yourself (sounds perverted but wait for the pictures I show you). I have been very busy the past few months traveling with basketball so the golf game is not that sharp. I have started to play a bit more over the past few weeks and hoping that I peak at the right time. The ECI is the official start of tournament season. I plan on qualifying for the US Pub Links, US Amateur and The Georgia Open. As always it will be great to see everybody this year, especially for 2 days. I can't wait and will see everybody on Saturday afternoon.

P.S. – Marc sent me a text message tonight. I just realized that this year is the 14th ECI, and not the 10th. Oops, hehehehehehehehe!
