

Open Hearth Cooking Classes

Offered by
The Lisbon Historical Society

Step back in time to the early 1800s for hands on experience cooking over the open hearth in the John Bishop House Museum, Lisbon Connecticut.

With the guidance and instruction from the Society's teaching staff, students will prepare dinner from traditional recipes using period cooking utensils and methods and then share the fruit of your labors at a candlelit table in front of the fireplace.

We offer both evening and afternoon classes. Lisbon Historical Society, Hearth Cooking Class at the John Bishop House, Route 169, Lisbon.

Class Dates

Evening class

Saturday, February 8th , 2014 snow date March 8th
5:30-10:30p.m.

Afternoon class

Saturday, February 15th,2014 snow date March 15th
1:30-6:30p.m.

Interactive Fundraiser Donation: $ 55.00

Please return the registration form below with class choice and donation to: Paula Adams, 60 Kinsman Hill Rd, Lisbon, CT 06351. Make checks payable to the Lisbon Historical Society.

We reserve the right to cancel due to low enrollment or to postpone for bad weather. Contact Paula Adams for information: 860- 887- 8052, 10:00 a.m. - 5 p.m., weekdays.

Refunds available only if the class is cancelled.

OPEN HEARTH COOKING CLASS, Lisbon Historical Society

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Class Date: _____