

Dog Listener: Pat Wright

At Slater Library

Tuesday, September 6th, 2016

6:00 - 8pm presentation

Spend the evening with Dog Listener, Pat Wright. Learn how to bring your dog peace and solve the problem of unwanted behaviors.

Pat has studied in England with the original Dog listener, Jan Fennell, becoming certified at all levels of training. She has been held as the highest ranking Dog Listener in the United States for many years through Fennell's International Team as well an active mentor to other Dog Listeners around the world. Pat has studied wolf behavior with biologists at Yellowstone Park in Wyoming on three different occasions adding to their study and her knowledge base.

Some of the many topics to be addressed are, pulling on the lead, jumping up, aggression, separation anxiety and excessive barking. You will also learn how to get willing cooperation from your dog to perform any task at hand. Pat mixes in some very interesting and entertaining experiences from her many years of Dog Listening through-out New England to make this an informative and fun evening.
