

The Arc Quinebaug Valley is hosting two free workshops, presented by Connecticut Parent Advocacy Center, for students with disabilities, their parents and educators:

Exploring the Tools of Self-Advocacy

Wednesday, October 2, 2013

Participants will receive information about the tools available to help students learn self-advocacy skills and identify the skills necessary for students' success. Participants will also hear from an adult with learning disabilities as he shares his experiences in the journey to adult life.

Getting and Keeping the First Job

Wednesday, October 9, 2013

Students with disabilities will hear straight talk about employment and how to prepare to get and maintain a job. Information about accommodations, disclosure and interviewing will be shared. Information from an employer's perspective will also be shared.

Both workshops will be held from 6 pm to 8 pm at Quinebaug Valley Community College (Room E239) located at 742 Upper Maple Street in Danielson, Connecticut.
